RE: Request for Proposals

I. INTRODUCTION

The College of Education is pleased to announce that a fund of $5,000.00 has been established to support graduate student travel to present scholarly work in 2016-17. The COE Graduate Student Travel Awards are designated specifically to assist graduate students in the College of Education with funds to disseminate research at national conferences. All currently enrolled graduate students are eligible and encouraged to apply for these funds. The travel funds may be requested ONLY for travel to disseminate scholarly work. The maximum amount of the award is $500.00 Requests for travel funds should be accompanied by appropriate documentation including conference letters of acceptance and/or other official papers where applicable (see proposal requirements below). Also, requests for reimbursement of travel funds that has already occurred in this fiscal year (after July 1, 2016) should be accompanied by appropriate documentation including receipts, letters of acceptance, conference proceedings, and other official papers where applicable.

II. TRAVEL FUNDING PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS

Description and Submission
Each proposal must have the following:

1. A contact page with name, department, name of faculty advisor, and student’s phone and email address
2. A proposal narrative page with the (a) name, location, and dates of the conference you will be attending, (b) the title and an abstract of your presentation(s), and (c) any other pertinent information related to your proposed trip.
3. A copy of an acceptance letter or acknowledgement of a presentation proposal submitted and under review (Please note: Funding will not be awarded until final confirmation of acceptance has been provided).
4. A budget page (see example at end of this document)

If awarded, all budget items must be committed by June 30, 2017. In preparing the proposal, please refer to the attached pages that describe how the proposal must be formatted and how the committee will evaluate each proposal. Members of the review committee are representative of all departments in the COE.

Please note that recipients of Travel Awards must submit a brief written report to the Associate Dean for Research at the conclusion of their travel
To apply for funds, submit your complete proposal as an e-mail attachment (MS Word document or PDF) to Dr. Christina Perry, Interim Associate Dean for Research, (cperry2@unm.edu). The deadline to submit a proposal is September 30, 2016.
